DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

On December 28, 2020, Sheralee Marshall filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration ("SIRVA") following receipt of an influenza ("flu") vaccine on October 21, 2019. Petition at 1. On June 28, 2023, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the Respondent's proffer. ECF No. 62.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $34,713.55 (representing $32,751.20 in fees plus $1,962.35 in costs). Petitioner's Final

Motion for Attorney Fees and Cost ("Motion") filed Dec. 12, 2023, ECF No. 69. In accordance with General Order No. 9, Petitioner filed a signed statement indicating that no personal costs were incurred in pursuit of this claim. ECF No. 70.

Respondent reacted to the motion on December 15, 2023, indicating that he is satisfied that the statutory requirements for an award of attorney's fees and costs are met in this case, but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Respondent's Response to Motion at 2-3, ECF No. 71. Petitioner filed no reply.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. In my experience, the request appears reasonable, and I find no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates. Furthermore, Petitioner has provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. Motion, at 28 - 50. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). I award a total of $34,713.55 (representing $32,751.20 in fees plus $1,962.35 in costs) as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to Petitioner and Petitioner's counsel, Ronald Craig Homer. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>3</sup>
